

Robert Petersson, M.Sc

Robert Petersson was born 1956. He received his M.Sc. 1981 at the Chalmers University of Technology. He joined Ericsson Radar Electronics as an antenna design engineer and has been responsible for the development of several spaceborn slotted waveguide arrays. Since 1992 he has worked at Saab Ericsson Space as section manager for antenna design. 1999 he became responsible for the section developing equipment for wideband communications at Saab Ericsson Space.